THE MAINE SPIRIT

The words on the back of the shirts of these four Maine swimmers tells the whole story as they cheer on their teammates during the 1980 New England championship meet held at Wallace Pool.

1986-87 — NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONS AGAIN!

Maine swimmers had another great season in the winter of '86-'87, winning the New England championship for the sixth time in UM women's swimming history. The Black Bears also won nine of 10 dual meets and finished second in the prestigious San Diego Invitational. Wendy Peddie won New England titles, while Kathleen Leahy, Mary Briselden and Laura Negri each claimed one title. Front row, left to right: Betsy Evans, Alicia Bellemore, Joni Rossignol, Kathleen Leahy, Donna Griffin, Lynn McPhail, Tammy Walls, and Robin Ottman. Second row, left to right: Sidney Gatewood, Stacey Seabreese, Mary Wakeman, Wendy Peddie, Mary Biselden, Elizabeth Burnham, Anna Ley, Kathy Isaacs, and Dee Smith. Back row, left to right: Maria Coomaraswamy, Amy Allen, Laura Negri, Marybeth Larzelere, Dana Billington, Kris Billington, Patti Seiders, and Bryn Fenton. Absent: Head Coach Jeff Wren and Diving Coach John Bransfield.

DIVERS

Strong diving contingents have been a key factor in Maine's swimming successes over the years. Members of Coach Rich Miller's (dark glasses) team in 1978 were, clockwise from the top, Lance Graham, Peri-Ann Hines (glasses), Jacquelyn Long (top of ladder), Patty Dubois, Patricia Redden, and Janice Wright (bottom).

ENCOURAGEMENT

(L-R) Laura Negri, Mimi Larzelere, Patty Seiders, Amy Allen, and Mary Wakeman were teammates for four years. As one can see, they are shown giving one or more their teammates a high level of encouragement during a practice session in their final (1987-88) season as Black Bear swimmers.

CHAMPION TO COACH

Susan Herrick became the first UM swimmer to win more than one America East individual title when she finished first in three events in 1996 and added another the following year. She won the 200 yard butterfly, 200 yard individual medley, and the 400 yard individual medley in '96, including a conference record time of 4:31.97 in the latter event. She repeated as 200 yard butterfly champion in 1997. Since 1999, she has been a valuable member of the UM swimming coaching staff.

1989-90 BLACK BEARS

The Maine women had another good season in the winter of 1989-90, posting a 7-5 record in dual meets against New England's best teams and ending the season with a third place finish in the New England championships. A seasonal highlight was a new pool record time in the 400 meter freestyle set by the team of Laurie Deputy, Robin Wilson, Jen Denison and Stacey Seabreese. Front row, l-r, Julie Chandler, Noreen Solakoff, Marcia D'Entremont, Dana Billington, Jen Denison, Sue Ahlers, and Peggy Campbell. Second row, l-r, Sue Trombini, Stephanie Taylor-Humphrey, Jill Abrams, Natalie Zdenek, Nancy Connolly, Karen Stevens, Wendy Woodbury, Alexis Livingston, and Bobbi Wilson. Third row, l-r, Jennifer Boucher, Mary Whaling, Michelle Giroux, Jennifer Taylor, Jennifer McGowan, and Laurie Deputy.

CAROLYN BRYDEN — FOUR NEW ENGLAND RECORDS

Carolyn Bryden owns a unique place in the history of UM women's swimming. She won four New England titles during the 1979-80 and 1981-82 seasons in the 50, 100, and 200 yard freestyle races and established new New England records in all four.

MAINE'S FASTEST

Krystal Fogler may rightfully be regarded as one of the fastest swimmers in UM history. Remarkably, she established four University speed records in individual events and was a member of five record-holding relay teams. She is the UM record-holder in the 100-yard freestyle, 200-yard freestyle, 100-yard backstroke, and 100-yard butterfly, and share records with her teammates in the 200-yard medley relay, 400-yard medley relay, 200-yard freestyle relay, the 400-yard freestyle relay, and the 800-yard freestyle relay.

WHITNEY LEEMAN — AN EXTRAORDINARY PERFORMER

Whitney Leeman gave one of the most brilliant performances in the history of New England intercollegiate swimming when she won five events at the 1983–84 women’s championship meet. In three seasons between 1981 and 1984, she won a total of nine titles, including the 100 yard individual medley three times. Other events in which she was the best in New England were the 50 and 200 yard breaststroke, the 50, 100, and 200 yard backstroke, and the 200 yard individual medley.

HALL OF FAME

Julie Woodcock, seen accepting her University of Maine Hall of Fame plaque from Coach Jeff Wren in 1986, established records of swimming excellence during her four years at Maine. She won 15 New England individual championships, including setting all-time speed records in seven events. In addition, she was a member of four New England championship relay teams. She was the first female athlete inducted into the UM Hall of Fame.

NATIONAL QUALIFIERS

Fresh from an undefeated (9-0) record in the 1976–77 season, the above six Maine swimmers represented the largest contingent of any New England university in qualifying for the national AIAW championships. Left to right: Patti Ward, Eileen Sherlock, Jill Puzas, Nancy Kurt, Julie Woodcock, and Anne Lucey.

1979-80 — NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONS

The 1979-80 season proved to be one of the best in UM history as the Black Bears won seven of nine dual meets and captured the team title at the annual New England championship meet. Cary Bryden and Beth Carone were responsible for one of the greatest two-person performances in the history of the New England meet with Bryden winning four events, including record-setting times in three, and Carone winning three events. Front row, left to right, Sue Moore, Peri Hines, Patti Ward, Debbie Ury, Mary Largay, and Joan Sherlock. Second row, left to right: Diving Coach Rich Miller, Tricia Redden, Janice Wight, Lisa Berberian, Dee Dee Daniels, and Patty Blumenstock. Third row, left to right: Anne Griswold, Tina Littlejohn, Lee Blumenstock, Connie Hallett, Mary Sowa, and Kim Annis. Fourth row, left to right: Linda Baird, Beth Carone, Charmy Cutler, Jill Puzas, and Cary Bryden. Back row, left to right: Cindy Kuzmiski, Amy Griswold, Leigh Hutchinson, Capt. Eileen Sherlock, and Coach Jeff Wren.

BETH CARONE — A CHAMPION PERFORMER

Maine had many outstanding women swimmers during the early 1980s and Beth Carone was one of the best. She was a four-time individual New England champion (50 yard breaststroke twice, 100 and 200 yard individual medley) and four times was a member of a New England championship relay team.

AMERICA EAST

Creation of the North Atlantic Conference in the late 1980s, later re-named America East, gave Maine swimmers a new conference championship to be vied for on an annual basis. Charter members were Boston and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

The U. of Delaware and Drexel U. joined in 1991 and Towson U. became a member in 1995. The U. of Delaware and Drexel and Towson Universities resigned in 2001. Binghamton and Stony Brook Universities became members in 2001. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2003-04. Northeastern U. resigned following the 2003-04 season.

Team scores in the annual championship meet are listed below.

WALLACE POOL — A CHAMPIONSHIP SITE

Wallace Pool is recognized as one of the top swimming facilities in the northeast. It has hosted, on several occasions, the America East and New England championship meets, as well as dozens of State of Maine high school and YMCA title affairs. Cumulatively, these events attract hundreds, if not thousands of swimmers, along with their friends and families, to the Orono campus each season.

NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONSHIPS

The New England Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Championships was an annual event on the schedule of Maine's women's swim team for two decades between 1973 and 1994. The Black Bears dominated many of the competitions, winning a number of team and individual championships.

COACHES

Members of Maine swimming teams have been fortunate over the years to benefit from the coaching skills of their coaches, including the trio shown here. Jeff Wren (left) established the women's swimming program in 1973 and coached his 34th team in the winter of 2006–07. He also took over as head coach of the men's team upon the retirement of Alan Switzer (right) in 1990 which adds up to 51 teams he has mentored during his UM career. His record includes six New England titles and four second place finishes. Rich Miller (center) served as diving coach for both the men's and women's teams for the first 15 seasons of UM swimming and is credited with developing many of the top divers in UM history. Alan Switzer was hired by Athletic Director Hal Westerman in 1972 to be director of operations for the new Stanley Wallace Pool, as well as coach of the men's team. During his tenure Maine won two New England titles, five Yankee Conference championships and posted a dual meet record of 137 wins against only 62 losses (.689).
